A Place to Call Home was a series which was saved by its fans and so the journey of this, the final chapter, is a very important one. It was imperative for us that the series retain its integrity and that we would bring the series to a close at its natural story point and that is what everyone who loves the show can expect."

A Place to Call Home: another great PBS series, reminiscent of Downton Abbey but with more scandal. Focusing on an aristocratic Australian family saga during the early to mid 1950's. The acting is phenomenal, and the series is very well written. It addresses a wide range of many social issues that are still relevant today. Shocking secrets, twists and turns and lies to keep you thoroughly ...
