In this hilarious, romantic comedy, two twenty-something neighbors embark on a zany mission to meet the founder of Starbucks, and in doing so, find each other.

Described as “one of the great prose stylists of the twentieth century,‟ Bohumil Hrabal ranks among the most important and widely translated Czech authors. Jiří Pelán, a respected scholar of Czech, French and Italian literature, approaches Hrabal as a comparatist, expertly situating him within the context of European and world literature, as he explores the entirety of Hrabal’s oeuvre and its development over sixty years. Praised for its concise, clear and readable style, Bohumil Hrabal: A Full-length Portrait offers international readers an important Czech perspective on the world-class author. Contains 32 photographs of Bohumil Hrabal, a list of his works’ English translations to date, and a bibliography of international scholarship.

Jiří Weil’s documentary prose poem, Lamentation for 77,297 Victims is a literary monument to the Czech Jews killed during the Holocaust. A remarkable Czech-Jewish writer who worked at Prague’s Jewish Museum during the Nazi Occupation and after – he survived the Holocaust by faking his own death – Weil wrote his Lamentation while he served as the museum’s senior librarian in the 1950s. Remarkable literary experiment opening new ways how to write about the undescrivable combines a narrative of the Shoa, newspaper style accounts of individual lives destroyed by the Holocaust, and quotes from the Tanakh, each having a specific and powerful effect.

Výbor ze studií literárního historika a editora Martina Machovce, které vznikaly v posledních dvou dekáдах (2000–2018), p?edstavuje celou řadu faset uvažování o fenoménu undergroundu. V jednotlivých studiích se zabývá zejména undergroundovou literaturou z okruhu I. M. Jirouse a rockové skupiny The Plastic People of the Universe, ale v?nuje pozornost i širším souvislostem této literatury – jejím p?edch?dc?m z 50. let (okruh Egona Bondyho a Ivo Vodse?álka), roli ve spole?enství Charty 77, vazbám na angloamerické prost?edí nebo hudebním a scénickým realizacím a zp?sobu, jakým byly tyto texty v samizdatu ší?eny. In this collection of writings produced between 2000 and 2018, the pioneering literary historian of the Czech underground, Martin Machovec, examines the multifarious nature of the underground phenomenon. After devoting considerable attention to the circle surrounding the band The Plastic People of the Universe and their manager, the poet Ivan M. Jirous, Machovec turns outward to examine the broader concept of the underground, comparing the Czech incarnation not only with the movements of its Central and Eastern European neighbors, but also with those in the world at large. In one essay, he reflects on the so-called P?Inoc Editions, which published illegal texts in the darkest days of the late forties and early fifties. In other essays, Machovec examines the relationship between illegal texts published at home (samizdat) and those smuggled out to be published abroad (tamizdat), as well as the range of literature that can be classified as samizdat, drawing attention to movements frequently overlooked by literary critics. In his final, previously unpublished essay, Machovec examines Jirous’s “Report on the Third Czech Musical Revival” not as a merely historical document, but as literature itself.

Básník, prozaik, dramatik a publicista Viktor Dyk se v této novele (?asopisecky 1911–1912, knižn? 1915) inspiroval starou saskou pov?stí, již použil jako volný rámec pro vypráv?ní o tajemném poutníkovi, který na žádost ob?an? o?istí svou pís?alou hanzovní m?sto Hammeln od krys, avšak roz?arován malodušností konšel? a zrazen v lásce, zneužije pís?aly a odvede za trest celé m?sto do zkázy. Protipólem postavy krysa?e, osudov? formovaného hrdiny, osam?lého a neklidného snivce z?les?ujícího sv?t bu?í??. Je v knize rybná? Sepp Jörgen, jenž se s realitou smí?uje a záchranou kojenice dá vyr?st nové nad?ji. Dyk v této novele, jež odráží novoklasicistní sm??ování jeho pozdní tvorby, tak dokázal využít staré p?edlohy k vytvo?ení svrchovaného prozaického díla o konfliktu iluze a skute?nosti. Jeho tajuplná atmosféra p?edznamenává pozd?jší baladickou prózu 30. let.

The collection of short stories entitled Behind the Lines: Bulguma and Other Stories draws on Hašek’s experience from revolutionary Russia. In a manner similar to that employed in his caricatures of the pre-war monarchy, he satirically captures events of the Bolshevik revolution from the perspective of a Red commissar in a combination of grotesque humor and sarcasm. Historical events serve merely as part of the historical mystification. Hašek presents them as he perceived them as a man and participant in historical events. He depicts them primarily as simple and human, pushing his critical view into the background. On the border of a comic exaggeration and a realistic depiction, an amusing story about a forgotten Tartar town of Bugulma unfolds featuring the Soviet commander of the Tver Revolutionary Regiment, drunk Yerokhimov, and Comrade Gašek, the Commanding Officer of Bugulma. Employing humor and exaggeration, Hašek demonstrates the zealotry of the revolutionary period as well as the stupidity and simple human insecurity of authoritarians. The collection of short stories, Behind the Lines, also includes other sketches by Hašek, written at the same time.

Explores the dynamic connections between the affective body and Djuna Barnes’s textual corpus. Julie Taylor uses the writings of the American novelist, poet, dramatist, artist and journalist Djuna Barnes to form the basis of a series of disruptive questions about modernist aesthetics and the politics of reading.
