Nuremberg firmly established the principle of individual responsibility for crimes committed even during time of war. While the first, it was, by no means, the "final" solution to crimes against peace or humanity. The Nuremberg Interviews explains the motivations of the men most directly responsible for the deaths of an estimated 6 million people.

About The Nuremberg Interviews. During the Nuremberg trials, Leon Goldensohn—a U.S. Army psychiatrist—monitored the mental health of two dozen Germans leaders charged with carrying out genocide. These recorded conversations went largely unexamined for more than fifty years, until Robert Gellately—one of the premier historians of Nazi Germany—made them available to the public in this remarkable collection.
